Best Year in Washington?

NAR’s chief advocate takes a pause to recognize the “brilliant and talented team” fighting for your businesses. View Shannon McGahn’s commentary, which highlights not only REALTORS® 2019 successes but some of the wins achieved already in 2020.

Trend-watch: 3Q Legal Update

Just out: Legal Pulse \(3Q 2019\) will keep you on top of current risk management issues — agency, property condition disclosure, RESPA, employment law, and more — based on the latest case law and statutory research.

RPAC AUCTION

Mark April 9th on your calendar for the RPAC Auction at our Membership Luncheon. We are looking for donations from all members to help us make this event a success. If you can help us out, please contact Chris at the Board Office.

Days on Market Decrease

Properties were typically on the market in January for 43 days, down from 49 days during the previous January. Read more from NAR’s latest REALTORS® Confidence Index.

Snapshot: Existing-Home Sales

January brought 5.46 million in sales, a median sales price of $266,300, and 3.1 months of inventory. See how the median sales price and inventory changed from January 2019 in this snapshot.

Get Engaged and Endorsed

You are encouraged to participate in the Commitment to Excellence program and join the ranks of the 40,000+ REALTORS® on their way to a C2EX endorsement. You’ll show peers and prospects your dedication and professionalism while boosting business and gaining the competitive edge.
