NAR Asks Government to Process Stalled Loans

NAR has asked the Trump administration to provide relief to people whose Rural Housing Loan Program mortgage applications have been held up by the partial government shutdown. In a Jan. 16th communication, the association requested that the U.S. Department of Agriculture, which runs the Rural Housing Service, assign staff to process the loan applications as part of its plan to reopen Farm Service Agency offices temporarily during the shutdown. Learn more about how the shutdown has affected the real estate industry.
