Help Defend 1031 Exchanges

Recent proposals to repeal or limit the 1031 like-kind exchange could devastate the commercial real estate sector and investment in communities across the country. We need your help to educate lawmakers and their staff about the economic benefits of like-kind exchanges. Through our new 1031 Like-Kind Exchange Member Stories portal, you can tell how they used the 1031 to bring economic investment to their community. Help NAR's advocacy team put a human face on this critical real estate tool.

Green Home Tour Series Continues

You can hear Mark and Leslie Giorgetti of Palo Santo Designs live from Santa Fe, N.M., as they showcase Modern Farmhouse, their award-winning, high-performance personal residence and discuss selling green. You are encouraged to register today for this June 17th Green Home Tour series event.
