Existing Home Sales Go Up

Infographic: Total April existing-home sales increased 0.4 percent from March.

New Issue Affects Real Estate

REALTORS® have long reported low inventory as a major issue affecting transactions. That continued in April, but they also say construction is now an issue. Read more in the latest confidence index.

Money Laundering Rules Extended

Data collection and reporting requirements on title companies involved in certain residential real estate transactions will continue after the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network's renewal of geographic targeting orders. The GTOs are effective through Nov. 11, 2019.

Share Your Story

Every month is a new opportunity to get involved in the national "That's Who We R" campaign. There's still time to answer the May writing prompt, and in June, we're asking members to share a tip for keeping business hot throughout the summer. You are encourage to share your story here.

Legal Hot Topics for Brokers

Broker-members review this information about important legal topics, including wire fraud, TCPA, and the Moehrl v. NAR litigation, along with access to links to NAR resources.

Fair Housing Claim Can Proceed

A California federal court has denied a landlord's attempt to dismiss a lawsuit, instead ruling that a tenant's claim alleging disability discrimination over the loss of his assigned parking spot can continue.
