NAR Applauds Passage of Water Bill

NAR praised the Senate for its passage today of legislation that would promote federal government investment in infrastructure to protect communities against natural disasters, provide Americans with sustainable access to clean water, and maintain waterways and ports. The House approved the legislation, America’s Water Infrastructure Act of 2018, earlier this year, and it heads next to President Trump. More.

Fannie Mae Offers Appraisal Waivers

Fannie Mae will be offering appraisal waivers in exchange for a mandatory home property inspection for properties in high-needs rural areas as determined under the Duty to Serve Underserved Markets rule. The appraisal waivers, which will become available later this year, are intended to reduce costs for borrowers while ensuring properties meet safety standards. More.

Video: Assistance Animals in Housing

The latest Window to the Law video from NAR Legal Affairs examines the issues that may come up when an individual requests an accommodation for an assistance animal. Access a white paper on the federal, state, and local laws that protect people with disabilities.

Register for Transitional Land Course

The REALTORS® Land Institute will be hosting an updated online course in November for commercial agents looking to gain a better understanding of both sides of a transitional land transaction. Register.

IRS: Business Meals Are Still Deductible

Business meal expenses remain partially tax deductible under the new tax law even if they’re connected with an activity defined as entertainment, according to temporary guidance issued last week by the IRS. Details.
